2023 Frauds, Scams, & What to look for.

Now that 2023 is upon us, Millbury National Bank is working harder than ever to help our customers to be more aware of the different types of scams that are happening more frequently.

Text Message Scams:

Scammers will send a message to you saying your account has been placed on hold, been paid off, or that you need to update your information. These messages are sent with a link that has you input personal information.

Phone Call Scams:

Scammers will try to call you, sometimes using a familiar looking number causing you to pick up the phone. When these scammers call, they have been telling customers that their account has a fraud alert, and that the person needs to close all their accounts right away.

Romance Scams:

Scammers have been telling customers complicated stories to get them to send money or gift cards. Other scammers pretend to be successful cryptocurrency investors and use romance to lure people into sending money for fake investments.

Scammers are finding more and more ways to get what they can't have. Be on the lookout for anything that may seem off or just not right. Always report any kind of suspicious activity that you come across as a consumer.

Random Acts of Kindness

In 2022 Millbury National Bank held a few Random Acts of Kindness. In November we went to Goretti's Supermarket and bought groceries for customers. In December, we went to McLaughlin's and Riverside Mart to buy gas for customers. MNB is beyond thankful to be able to put all this together!
