INOVA Federal CEO has been inducted into the Indiana Credit Union Hall of Fame.

Elkhart, IN—Dallas Bergl, President and CEO of INOVA Federal, was inducted into the Indiana Credit Union Hall of Fame at the recent 2021 Indiana Credit Union League Convention Award Banquet. Mr. Bergl has worked in the credit union industry for over 30 years, holding positions from Collections Manager to his current role as CEO, which he has held for over two decades. INOVA is headquartered in Elkhart, Indiana and employs over 150 people with locations in two states. During Mr. Bergl's tenure, INOVA has enjoyed continued asset growth, completed multiple mergers, expanded their branch platform and is executing an evolution in their service delivery platforms to ensure long term relevance and financial well-being for all members.

Mr. Bergl currently serves as a member of the World Council of Credit Unions (WOCCU) Board, the Worldwide Foundation for Credit Unions Board, the Credit Union National Association (CUNA) Board and chairs their Audit Committee, and CUNA's World Affairs Committee, and is the prior past Chairman of the Indiana Credit Union League (ICUL) Board. He is also a member of the North Central Indiana Redevelopment Authority Board, and the Lerner Theatre Governing Board. He also served as the City of Elkhart's Ambassador to China.

While in the United States Army's Infantry, Mr. Bergl served in President Ronald Regan's Presidential Escort. He has received numerous honors, awards and citations for both his military and his professional and public service. These include the Key to the City of Elkhart, Professional of the Year from the ICUL, the Paul Revere Award from NAFCU, a Presidential Unit Citation while serving in the Army's Honor Guard and others.
