INOVA Federal Cuts Ribbon on New Granger Location

Elkhart, IN — INOVA Federal officially cut the ribbon on their new Granger location on May 20th, with representatives from the South Bend and Elkhart Chambers of Commerce present to commemorate the opening of the new state-of-the-art branch. Located at 605 E. University Drive, directly across from Granger Community Church, the new branch will provide Members with a state-of-the-art banking experience in a convenient location.

“Our new facility features the latest in banking technologies such as Interactive Banking Kiosks, which allows users to perform any type of banking transaction quickly, easily, and securely.” says Dallas Bergl, President and CEO of INOVA. “This new location is also in an area many members work or visit for errands and entertainment, which provides them much easier access to their credit union.”

For nearly 80 years, INOVA Federal has been guiding its loyal members through their journey toward financial wellness. The innovative environment of this new branch will bolster that commitment, by providing solutions and services that will save members money and deliver a more tailored and efficient banking experience.

For more information about the new Granger location call 800-826-5465.
