The INOVA team, led by Claire Kellems, VP of Analytics, Process and Technology, has been raising money for Making Strides for over 8 years.

“I am proud of our INOVA team members for their dedication over the years in raising money for this great organization, we have raised over $29,000 since 2013”, said Claire Kellems, VP of Analytics, Processing and Technology at INOVA.

INOVA’s team plans to continue fundraising for this great cause in the future, and is looking forward to raising even more money to help support those who benefit from the services the American Cancer Society provides.
