A Message from Carol

Hello!

Our day trip to St. Joe was just amazing. That city, close to home, offers so much to see and do. St. Joe did not disappoint! Thanks to everyone who traveled on this fun and educational day trip. Up next is the Elk Horn and Kimballton area. We look forward to another great day trip adventure.

The final details are in place for our New York Trip. We are excited to present this wonderful itinerary for our big July trip!

The rest of the year is going to be fun and travel filled. I do have some room on the Minnesota trip to Chanhassen and Skyrock Farm. ## The Music Man Skyrock Farm and Carousel October 20-21

Our trip to see the beloved musical "The Music Man," is coming up! We will head to Chanhassen, and enjoy the musical performance and great dinner experience at the theatre. On our way to Chanhassen, we will stop at Russell Stover for a "sweet" shopping treat and rest stop. After a restful evening and breakfast the following morning, at the AmericInn, we will head north 20 minutes to Skyrock Farm. At first the farm looks like any other farm on the winding country road. Horses grazing beside the barns and farmhouse are the picture of rural charm. Only a miniature train track offers a hint that this isn't a typical homestead. But waiting inside the event space are horses of a different kind. Step inside and be transported to a Parisian street carnival from the 1900s, where ornate organs and carousels of every size create a grand visual and musical feast worthy of a museum. Created for fairs in Europe, hand carved and delicately painted art nouveau motifs grace the facades. Their full, thunderous music belies their century-old age. The ballroom's four floor-to-ceiling organs surround visitors on all sides, permeating the space with historical sound. The collection is the result of Bill Nunn's 20-year hobby restoring carousels and organs. "Our goal is to have them look and sound like they did in the 1900s," he says. "I think it brings back a lot of memories and they are sort of awe-struck," said Bill. "It's great music. They call it the happiest music on Earth. "After we experience the Carousel, we will be treated to a home cooked meal. If you prefer live horses to carousel horses, after our delicious lunch we will be seated in their large indoor riding arena to enjoy a magnificent horse jumping exhibition. This experience will leave you spellbound!
