Summer Breezes
8 Days, 7 Nights
September 12 – 19, 2024

Day One – Thursday, September 12th: Washington D.C.

Today we will arrive at the Washington D.C. Airport where our professional Tour Guide and deluxe motorcoach will meet us. We will check into our Washington D.C. area accommodations for a three-night stay. After a welcome dinner, we will be treated to an illumination tour of the city. We will see many of the capital's famous monuments highlighted with spotlights that accentuate their beauty.

Day Two – Friday, September 13th: Monuments, Memorials & Museums (B, D)

A day of exploration awaits us in our nation's capital! Washington D.C. has a dizzying array of attractions, including museums; tours of federal buildings; shops; and restaurants. Today as we tour Washington D.C., we will see the White House, the Capitol Building, the towering Washington Monument, the contemplative Lincoln Monument, and the scenic Jefferson Memorial. We will have an opportunity to pause at the Korean and Vietnam War Memorials as well as the World War II Memorial to honor those who fought for the cause of freedom. Adjacent to the Capitol is the US Supreme Court, the Library of Congress (where the Gutenberg Bible is exhibited), and the original Supreme Court chamber. Near the Capitol is the 1907 era beaux-arts Union Station, opened then as an elegant gateway for trains to arrive at our nation's capital. Continuing to function as a train station and metro station (home to Amtrak), it also houses 120 upscale retail shops, theaters, restaurants, and cafes. A wonderful place to visit for lunch on our own!

The afternoon will be dedicated to the exploration of the Smithsonian, made up of a large variety of separate museums. We may opt to visit one or a number of these museums, including the National Air and Space Museum, housing collections that span from the Wright Brothers flight to the modern space program; the National Museum of Natural History, home to a dinosaur hall and butterfly exhibit. If you prefer art – there are several choices: the National Portrait Gallery, Freer Gallery of Art. Dinner is included this evening.

Day Three – Saturday, September 14th: Mount Vernon & Arlington Cemetery (B, L)

This morning following breakfast, we will spend the day in Virginia just across the Potomac River with D.C. in sight. We will begin our day with a tour of Mount Vernon, the former plantation of George Washington. Originally built in 1734 by his father as a much smaller home, George began running the estate in 1754 and for the next 45 years continued to enlarge the mansion to its final 21 room home. We will also have a guided walking tour of the grounds around the mansion. This will include some of the most important outbuildings along South Lane as well as the gardens and of course the tomb of George and Martha Washington. We have planned a very special lunch in the 18th century Mount Vernon Inn Restaurant.

This afternoon, we will travel to the site of the Robert E. Lee estate to visit Arlington National Cemetery, which contains the graves of over 250,000 U.S. soldiers. Arlington Cemetery has become synonymous with the honor and reverence of those who have served their country in the armed forces. Here we will visit the Maine Memorial, the Kennedy Gravesites, and the Tomb of the Unknowns featuring the Changing of the Guard. Dinner is on our own this evening.

Day Four – Sunday, September 15th: Colonial Williamsburg

(B, D)

Today we will depart the Washington D.C. area and head to the beach! Virginia Beach that is. It will be quite the contrast from the great American history in D.C. to a gorgeous 4-night stay on the Atlantic Shoreline in Virginia Beach. On our way to the shore, we will have time for an afternoon visit to Colonial Williamsburg. This represents the exciting colonial period before the US Revolution. It is America's most complete living history museum. We leave Williamsburg for the one-hour drive to our hotel. Dinner is included this evening.

Day Five – Monday, September 16th: Norfolk

(B, D)

We will enjoy a nice full day today following a great breakfast at the hotel. Just half an hour away from Virginia Beach is Norfolk, VA home to the world's biggest Naval Base. We will be gone all day from our hotel today including a special private dinner in Norfolk. Our day will begin with tours by land and sea as we visit the Nauticus and Battleship Wisconsin. Nauticus is the science center and museum known as the National Maritime Center, which features one of the largest battleships in the US – the Wisconsin. We will enjoy a cruise around Norfolk and see these magnificent Naval ships with a narrated tour. Enjoy lunch on your own at the Waterside District with plenty of choices to please everyone. No trip to Norfolk is complete without a visit to Doumar's famous ice cream shop (home of the original waffle cone), where we will enjoy a frozen treat. This afternoon, we will visit the MacArthur Memorial. This is a museum and research center dedicated to preserving and presenting the story of the life of General Douglas MacArthur.

We have a fun evening planned at the famous Mermaid Winery with a wine tasting, pairing a very special dinner. The mermaid is a mythical source of beauty that represents their vision to produce stunning wines. Their limited production wines are focused on articulating the characteristics of each varietal. Then it's back on the coach for the short drive back to our hotel.

Day Six – Tuesday, September 17th: Outer Banks, NC – Wild Horses

(B, D)

Following breakfast, we will drive south out of Virginia to the incredible Outer Banks of North Carolina. This is America's First Beach where the English first tried to settle in the New World. Our first visit will be to the Wright Brother National Memorial, where Orville and Wilbur Wright broke our bond with earth in 1903.

This afternoon, we will travel to the northern part of the Outer Banks to the beachside town of Corolla. Here amongst the sand dunes the Wild Horses roam with complete protection. We will take open-air safari style trucks with 15 guests each and drive around the dunes and along the shore to see them in their natural habitat. This is one of those wonderful surprises that will never be forgotten. We will enjoy dinner with cocktails on the Outer Banks before returning to Virginia Beach.

Day Seven – Wednesday, September 18th: Day at the Beach!

(B, D)

Live the life! Yesterday was a very busy day, so we can sleep in a little bit, have breakfast, and then begin our morning tour of Virginia Beach before we have a free afternoon to explore on our own. Virginia Beach is home to a flourishing local culinary scene, rich history, a variety of arts and entertainment, and family-friendly attractions that keeps locals and visitors entertained year-round. Every corner of the coastal city offers unique ways to live the life, whether on the ocean, on the bay, or somewhere in between.

On the morning tour, we will see the Cape Henry Lighthouse. Built in 1792, commissioned by George Washington and overseen by Alexander Hamilton. It sits next to the site of the "First Landing" where the English arrived in 1607 prior to settling Jamestown. We will be visiting the Military Aviation Museum, home to one of the largest private collections of WWI and WWII era military aircraft in the world. Each plane beautifully restored using original parts whenever possible.

We will return to our hotel and then have the afternoon free to relax, explore, even go swimming, or take a walk along the boardwalk. Each of us will be given a voucher for admission to the Surf and Rescue Museum, which preserves history of the historic 1903 Life Saving Station including the rescuers who worked there and how they helped create modern Virginia Beach. This is a short walk from our hotel. Tonight, we will have our final night dinner together.

Day Eight - Thursday, September 19th: Home

(B)

Today, depending on our flight schedules on the first day, we will do additional touring we missed on day one. What a week at the beach! Who would have thought there was so much so close to the Atlantic Ocean in one of America's great playgrounds!

D.L. Evans Bank Premier Club tours are assigned activity ratings from level 1 to level 5. Please consider the following statements and at what level you are comfortable traveling when booking your tour:

LEVEL 1:

I like to keep walking to a minimum and avoiding stairs when I can. I can walk up to a mile per day over primarily level ground with short periods of standing.

LEVEL 2:

I'm comfortable walking one to two miles throughout the day. I expect to get on and off a motor coach, and I'm ready to stroll through cities and walk over uneven pavement. I can stand for up to 30 minutes and climb one to two flights of stairs.

LEVEL 3:

I like to spend much of the day exploring and be out and about on a coach with my days full. I can walk two to three miles per day and stand for long periods of time with no difficulty. Stairs don't bother me, and I love to keep up with the group.

LEVEL 4:

I am a fit traveler and am capable of easily walking three miles or more during the day. I would like my days to be filled with active pursuits for one to three hours at a time. I can walk on uneven and rocky terrain, including small hills.

LEVEL 5:

Walking is the best way to get to know a new place. I'm energetic and enjoy a challenge. I'm always ready to spend the day on the move. I am fine with uneven surfaces, inclines, stair climbing, windy or wet conditions at sites, and long periods of standing. I expect some of the experiences to occur in the evening with very long days.
