

Commercial Banker Job Posting - Exempt

Summary:

Republic Bank of Arizona (“RBAZ”) is seeking enthusiastic, experienced commercial banking professionals to support and grow a portfolio that includes both C&I and commercial real estate relationships. Those relationships will also include deposit and treasury management services, to achieve balance and sustainability. We are well capitalized, and ready to deploy resources throughout our business community to promote stable economic growth. As a Commercial Banker, you will call on existing and potential bank clients, and through regular communication, expertise and professionalism, become a trusted advisor.

This role is highly visible within the organization, and involves business development, creativity in lending solutions, effective portfolio management and development and enhancement of client relationships. You will identify and evaluate commercial lending opportunities, as well as identify and manage risk in portfolio loans and banking relationships. At RBAZ, your contribution will be evident and your voice heard, with direct access to executive management and the board of directors to assist in your success.

Republic Bank of Arizona is a locally owned, independent bank, dedicated to offering exceptional personalized service to business owners and community members through a deep knowledge and understanding of finance and business cycles. Management has a vision of profitable growth and expansion, and we recognize the need for a top quality team to achieve our objective. If you fit this profile, please contact us so we can continue the conversation.

Requirements:

Candidates should possess a minimum of five years relevant experience, with a Bachelor’s degree; advanced degree, experience in financial modeling, and/or formal credit training is a plus.

Exhibit sound and accurate judgment, and the ability to articulate reasoning for decisions, the ability to prioritize and concurrently manage multiple tasks, and meet productivity standards.

Location: Phoenix, Arizona
